Festive Season 2017

Greetings!

The highlights for 2017 have been many! Working with individuals; couples; families and teams in their individual and collective development, building relationships of trust and creating spaces for connection at home and the workplace.

I have had the privilege of teaching teams how to create the Thinking Environment in their board rooms and on retreat; preparing managers for organisation restructuring and thereafter redefine strategies and goals.

I have had the joy of continuing to partner with Symphonia for South Africa (www.pfp4sa.org) as a facilitator of Time to Think and the six conversations of leadership Community Building around the country.

I also continue to support Masenze Ikhusasa training ECD practitioners in the community of Alexandra and beyond.

We close the year with a December special: “Discover your Enneagram” – book your place by December 1st. and begin a life-changing journey with yourself!

As we enter the season of Advent, I invite you to follow our “Advent for the Soul” calendar as the year-end approaches and hopes for the festive season and new year fall into focus.

Wishing you all a blessed festive season and may 2018 be filled with opportunities to share.

Steph

Need a place to talk?

The festive season can be a lonely time for those who have had to deal with death of a loved one or divorce; or family dynamics getting in the way of connecting.

I am available for coaching appointments and on Skype until 22 December. Email me on stephd@workfamilymatters.co.za for an appointment.
